

2011 SMART LIVING WORKSHOPS

Do your bit to make Warrnambool a cleaner and greener city. Come along to the Smart Living Workshops, a series of free workshops which provides theoretical and practical information on how to reduce water and energy use in the home and save dollars and greenhouse gases.

Workshop	Date	Topics covered
Save Energy, Money and the Environment.	Thursday 26 th May	This theoretical and practical workshop will explain the principles of staying warm in winter and show how to install low cost options to save energy, costs and greenhouse gases.
Building an Energy Efficient Home	Wednesday 21 st September	Find out how to choose the right block, build a sustainable home and generally save running costs and the environment.
Sustainable Gardening – Dirty Weekend (Venue to be confirmed)	October – To be confirmed	Learn about how to garden organically, save water, pest plant control, how to compost and what grows well in Warrnambool.
Sustainable Transport (Venue to be confirmed)	October – To be confirmed	Learn how to maintain your bike, choose the best green car and general information about sustainable transport choices.

All Smart Living Workshops are free and held at 7.30pm at the Archie Graham Centre – Dining Room, Timor Street on the above dates. Registrations are essential and will be taken two weeks prior to the event. Please register by:

Telephone: Fiona - 5559 4847

Email: felliott@warrnambool.vic.gov.au

Post: Smart Living Workshops

PO Box 198

Warrnambool, VIC, 3280

CLEANER, GREENER, SMARTER

Supported by:

